1. Prep ingredients

Finely chop 1 tablespoon garlic.

Trim ends from scallions and thinly slice, keeping dark greens separate.

Scrub sweet potato, then cut into ¾-inch pieces.

2. Cook lamb

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium pot over medium-high. Add ground lamb and cook, breaking up into smaller pieces, until browned, 5–7 minutes.

3. Cook aromatics

To pot with lamb, add chopped garlic, scallion whites and light greens, and 1 tablespoon taco seasoning; cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Stir in tomato sauce; simmer over low heat, stirring occasionally, until sauce is slightly reduced, 3–5 minutes.

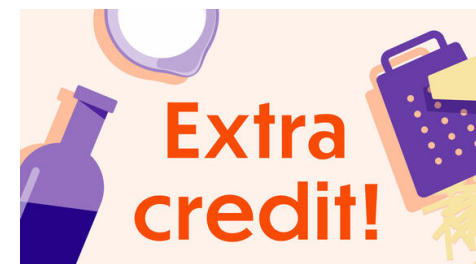

4. Simmer chili

To same pot, add beans and their liquid, sweet potatoes, 2 cups water, and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Bring to a boil over high. Reduce heat to low and simmer until potatoes are tender, lamb is cooked through, and chili is slightly thickened, 30–40 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper

5. Serve

Serve lamb and black bean chili garnished with scallion dark greens. Enjoy!

6. Crunch, crunch!

Top this chili with tortilla strips OR serve it up with tortilla chips on the side to use as crunchy vessels for shoveling heaping bites of chili!
