1. Prep ingredients

Preheat broiler with a rack 6 inches from heat source.

Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Finely chop shallot. Pick 2 teaspoons thyme leaves from stems; discard stems and finely chop leaves. Coarsely chop roasted red peppers, if necessary.

4. Make succotash

Meanwhile, heat 1 tablespoon butter in a medium skillet over medium-high until melted. Add shallots; cook, stirring, until softened, 2-3 minutes. Add garlic, corn, edamame, chopped thyme, red peppers, ¼ cup water, and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until corn and edamame are tender, and water is evaporated, about 5 minutes. Season to taste.

2. Cook grits

In a small saucepan, bring 2 cups water and a pinch of salt to a boil. Stir in grits. Reduce heat to low and cook, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, until grits are tender, about 7 minutes. Off the heat, stir in all of the cream cheese and 1 tablespoon butter. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Cover to keep warm.

5. Serve

Serve barbecue chicken alongside creamy grits and succotash. Enjoy!

3. Broil chicken

Pat chicken dry. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil and lightly grease with oil. Brush chicken on both sides with barbecue sauce. Broil until chicken is slightly charred and cooked through, 7-8 minutes.

6. No broiler? No problem!

If you don't have a broiler, preheat oven to 450°F. Prepare chicken as instructed in Step 3, then roast until chicken is cooked through and sauce has deepened in color, 12-15 minutes.
