

Homemade Ricotta Gnocchi with Prosciutto

Peas & Sage Brown Butter

30-40min

2 Servings

Light and fluffy ricotta gnocchi are surprisingly easy to make—not to mention delicious. After mixing together the three-cheese dough and cutting into bite-sized pieces, they only need a few minutes to boil. Meanwhile, we fry sage and prosciutto to a satisfying crisp, whip up a creamy sauce, and drizzle it all with nutty brown butter.

1. Prep ingredients

Bring a large pot of water to a boil.

Stack prosciutto slices, roll into a log, and slice into ¼-inch ribbons. Cut ribbons crosswise into ¼-inch pieces. Finely grate Parmesan. Pick half of the sage leaves from stems (save rest for own use); discard stems. Finely zest half of the lemon and squeeze 1 teaspoon juice, keeping separate.

4. Fry sage & prosciutto

In a medium skillet, melt 2 tablespoons butter over medium heat. Add sage and cook, swirling skillet occasionally, until leaves are crisp and butter is browned, 4-5 minutes. Transfer leaves to a paper towel-lined plate; transfer butter to a small bowl.

Return skillet to medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon oil and prosciutto. Cook, stirring often, until crisp, 2-3 minutes.

2. Mix gnocchi dough

In a medium bowl, whisk together ricotta, half of the Parmesan, 3 tablespoons mascarpone, 1 large egg, and 1 teaspoon salt. Add ½ cup flour; fold with a spatula until combined.

Dough should be slightly sticky but not loose; add 1 tablespoon flour at a time if still very moist after kneading with the spatula for 1 minute.

5. Cook gnocchi

Add gnocchi to pot with boiling water; stir gently and cook until gnocchi float for 30 seconds, about 3 minutes total. Reserve 1 cup cooking water; drain.

Add gnocchi, peas, lemon zest, remaining mascarpone, ½ teaspoon truffle dust, and ½ cup reserved cooking water to skillet with prosciutto.

3. Roll gnocchi

Transfer dough to a lightly floured work surface; dust dough with flour. Divide in half and roll each into a ½-inch thick log; dust with flour, as needed. Cut each log into ¾-inch pieces.

Transfer to a floured baking sheet, dust with more flour, and lightly shake to coat.

6. Finish sauce & serve

Cook over high heat, swirling skillet occasionally, until liquid has reduced into a creamy sauce, 1-2 minutes. Off heat, add lemon juice and half of the remaining Parmesan; mix until combined. Loosen with more cooking water if sauce is too thick. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve gnocchi topped with remaining Parmesan, sage butter, and fried sage. Enjoy!
