1. Cook rice & prep

In a small saucepan, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt; bring to a boil. Cover and cook over low heat until rice is tender and water is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

Finely chop half of the onion (save rest for own use). Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic. Halve pepper, discard stem and seeds, and finely chop. Halve orange.

2. Brown pork

Pat pork dry and season all over with salt and pepper.

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a medium skillet over high. Add pork; cook, without stirring, until well browned on one side, about 3 minutes. Stir and continue to cook until pork is almost cooked through, about 1 minute more. Transfer to a plate.

3. Start feijoada

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add onions, peppers and a pinch of salt; cook, stirring, until softened, 3–4 minutes. Add chopped garlic and Tex-Mex spice; cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Add beans and their liquid, ¾ cup water, and ½ teaspoon salt; bring to a simmer.

4. Finish feijoada

Return pork to skillet with beans. Reduce heat to medium and simmer, stirring occasionally, until slightly thickened and flavors have melded, about 10 minutes.

Squeeze juice from one orange half into stew; cut remaining half into wedges. Stir in 1 teaspoon vinegar and ½ teaspoon sugar. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

5. Serve

Serve pork feijoada over rice. Enjoy!
