1. Heat chicken cutlets

Heat 3 tablespoons oil in a medium skillet over medium-high until shimmering. Add chicken cutlets and fry until golden brown, crispy, and warmed through, 2-4 minutes per side (reduce heat if browning too quickly).

Transfer chicken cutlets to a paper towel-lined plate and season lightly with salt and pepper. Cut chicken into slices and reserve skillet.

2. Heat tortillas

Wrap tortillas in a damp paper towel and microwave until warm and pliable, 30 seconds.

3. Assemble pinwheels

Place tortillas on a clean work surface. Sprinkle one half of each tortilla with cheese, then top with chicken. Roll up tortillas, starting with filled sides, to create pinwheels.

Pro tip: this is a great task for any little helpers in your kitchen!

4. Heat pinwheels

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in reserved skillet over medium heat. Place pinwheels seam side down in skillet, and cook, turning occasionally, until browned all over, 2-4 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board.

5. Serve

Cut apples into slices, if you'd like. Slice pinwheels into 6-8 pieces each.

Serve crispy chicken & cheddar pinwheels with apples and ranch alongside. Enjoy!

6. An apple a day...

Packing these pinwheels and apples for lunch? Keep the apple fresh by slicing it into wedges then squeezing a lemon wedge over the cut sides. The acid from the lemon will prevent the apple from browning before your little one's lunch time!
