

Chicken Francese

with Caesar Salad & Homemade Croutons

20-30min

2 Servings

No need to make a reservation, we're bringing classic Italian-American restaurant fare to your kitchen table. Chicken Francese is an iconic dish—and for a good reason—it's delicious! Tender chicken breast is dipped in egg and then flour, creating a perfect coating to absorb the buttery lemon sauce. We serve it alongside a romaine salad tossed in a Caesar-style dressing with crunchy croutons.

1. Make dressing

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the center. Finely grate Parmesan and ½ teaspoon garlic into a large bowl. Squeeze lemon juice into a measuring cup. Whisk mustard, mayonnaise, 1½ tablespoons of the lemon juice, and 1 tablespoon oil into bowl with garlic and Parmesan. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Reserve remaining lemon juice in measuring cup for step 5.

2. Make croutons

Cut ciabatta into 1-inch pieces. Spread into a single layer on a piece of foil. Bake on center oven rack until toasted and browned in spots, 6-8 minutes (watch closely as ovens vary).

3. Prep chicken

Beat 1 large egg in a shallow bowl, then season with salt and pepper. In a second shallow bowl, combine ½ cup flour and a pinch of salt. Pat chicken dry, then use a meat mallet or heavy skillet to pound chicken to an even ¼-inch thickness. Season chicken all over with salt and pepper.

4. Coat & pan-fry chicken

Heat ⅓ inch oil in a medium skillet over medium-high until shimmering. Dip chicken into egg; let excess egg drip off. Press chicken into flour to fully coat; tap off excess. Add chicken (should sizzle vigorously when a pinch of flour is added); cook until golden brown and cooked through, 4-5 minutes per side (reduce heat if browning quickly). Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate.

5. Make sauce

Let skillet cool for 5 minutes, then drain oil. Heat skillet over medium, and whisk in broth concentrate, reserved lemon juice, ½ cup water, and 1 tablespoon butter, scraping up any browned bits from the bottom. Season sauce to taste with salt and pepper. Simmer until sauce is slightly reduced to coat the back of a spoon, about 2 minutes.

6. Finish & serve

Halve romaine lengthwise, then cut crosswise into 1-inch pieces, discarding ends. Add romaine and croutons to bowl with dressing, tossing to coat. Return chicken to skillet, turning to coat in sauce (sauce will thicken slightly). Serve chicken with sauce spooned over top, and with Caesar salad alongside. Enjoy!
