1. Boil potatoes

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the upper third. Peel potatoes, then cut into 1-inch pieces. Place in a medium saucepan. Add enough salted water to cover by 1 inch. Cover and bring to a boil over high heat; uncover and cook until easily pierced with a fork, 10-12 minutes. Reserve ¼ cup cooking water. Drain and return potatoes to saucepan off the heat. Cover to keep warm.

4. Make relish

While meatloaves roast, finely chop sun-dried tomatoes. In a small bowl, stir to combine sun-dried tomatoes, ½ teaspoon of the chopped garlic, 1 tablespoon oil, 1 teaspoon vinegar, and ½ teaspoon sugar. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

2. Prep ingredients

Meanwhile, trim stem ends from green beans. Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic. In a medium bowl, knead gently to combine turkey, panko, 1 large egg, 1 teaspoon of the chopped garlic, 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning, ½ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds of pepper.

5. Mash feta potatoes

Return saucepan with potatoes to medium heat. Add remaining chopped garlic and cook, stirring frequently, until pale and any liquid is evaporated, about 2-3 minutes. Use a potato masher or fork to mash potatoes with all of the feta cheese and sour cream and reserved cooking water until smooth. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Roast meatloaves

Toss green beans with 2 teaspoons oil on a rimmed baking sheet; season with salt and pepper. Form meatloaf mixture into 2 (4-inch) long oval patties. Place meatloaves on baking sheet between green beans. Roast on upper oven rack until just firm to the touch and cooked to 165°F internally, about 15 minutes.

6. Serve

Serve meatloaves with feta mashed potatoes and green beans alongside. Spoon sun-dried tomato relish over top meatloaves. Enjoy!
