1. Sheet-pan salmon

It's a no-brainer to combine quick-cooking salmon and easy-clean-up sheet pan roasts.

Combine quick-cooking veggies like tomatoes, bell peppers, and red onions. Toss with oil and seasoning and then add salmon filets. Roast in the oven until the veggies are tender and the salmon is easily flaked. Toss the roasted veggies on the hot sheet pan with a vinaigrette for a bright lift and warm pan sauce.

4. Grilled kebabs!

It's hard to beat grilled kebabs! Cube the chicken, then marinate in a combo of olive oil, lemon juice, dried oregano, and chopped garlic. Mix the ground beef with egg, ground cumin, ground coriander, grated onion and garlic. Thread on a skewer and grill along with your favorite veggies. Serve with warm pita and tzatziki sauce for dipping.

2. Please everyone!

Sometimes we have a combo of vegetarians and carnivores at our table. You too? Choose a dish that's perfect even without meat or fish-maybe a stir-fry or pasta! Cook the protein separately to add for those that wish to partake! Everyone's happy!

5. Southeast Asian Inspo

Larb is a popular dish in Laos and some parts of Thailand. It's sautéed ground meat that's heavily seasoned with an assortment of spices and aromatics, like fish sauce, lemongrass, shallots, garlic, fresh chilies and cilantro. Use the ground beef to recreate your own version. Wrap up in fresh bibb or baby gem lettuce leaves and serve with a sweet, sour, salty sauce.

3. Tex-Mex

Coat the chicken breasts in your favorite combo of Tex-mex spices. We're thinking ground cumin, taco seasoning, or chili powder. Or, make a wet marinade using chipotle in adobo, minced garlic, and ground cumin.

Grill or broil to stuff warm flour tortillas along with sautéed peppers, onions and your favorite toppings!

6. Stuffed burgers

One of our favorite uses of ground beef is burgers. We love how we can experiment with flavor profiles with seasoning, sauces, and toppings! Since everyone loves a cheeseburger, switch it up by stuffing the burger with some cheese, rather than going with the usual slice-on-top method. This way you get a gooey surprise in every bite!
