Dinnerly's resident dietitian is bringing you meals that are both ultra-satisfying and super nourishing. Amping up the veg and upgrading to a whole grain makes this a big step up from your typical take-out. Brown rice's two outer layers, the bran and germ, contain most of its nutrition that you can't get in white rice. Plus, edamame and scrambled eggs pack in the protein that'll leave you feeling good. We've got you covered!

1. Prep ingredients

Bring a medium saucepan with salted water to a boil over high heat.

Cut broccoli into 1-inch florets, if necessary. Halve pepper, discard stem and seeds, then cut into ½-inch slices. Trim ends from scallions, then thinly slice. Finely chop 1 teaspoon each of garlic and peeled ginger.

2. Cook rice & prep sauce

Add rice to saucepan with boiling salted water and boil (like pasta!), stirring occasionally, until just tender, about 22 minutes. Drain in a fine-mesh sieve, rinse under cold water, and drain well again. Spread out rice on a paper towel-lined plate to dry and cool.

In a small bowl, whisk to combine teriyaki and 1 tablespoon each of water and vinegar; set aside for step 5.

3. Scramble eggs

In a second small bowl, whisk 2 large eggs and a pinch of salt.

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add eggs and scramble until soft curds form, about 1 minute. Return to bowl; wipe out skillet.

4. Stir-fry veggies

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over high. Add broccoli, peppers, and a pinch of salt, tossing to coat. Add 2 tablespoons water; cover and cook until veggies are crisp-tender, 3–4 minutes.

Add chopped garlic and ginger and all but 1 teaspoon of the scallions, stirring to combine.

5. Finish & serve

To same skillet, add rice, edamame, and 2 teaspoons oil, stirring to combine. Cook, pressing down to crisp rice and tossing occasionally, until warmed through, 4–5 minutes. Add eggs and teriyaki mixture; stir to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve veggie fried rice with remaining scallions sprinkled over top. Enjoy!

6. Amp up the veg!

Versatile fried rice is the perfect way to use up any extra veggies you have in your fridge. Just toss them in with the broccoli and peppers in step 4.
