

Vegan Nigerian Red Stew

with Delicata Squash, Collard Greens & Rice

40min

2 Servings

Obe Ata is a Nigerian sauce used for stews, soups, and dips made from sweet and spicy peppers, tomatoes, and curry powder—and it inspired this flavorful plant-based stew! We broil tender squash to intensify its sweetness, then add it to collard greens simmering in the obe ata. Steamed jasmine rice soaks up the flavors, and with a sprinkling of roasted pumpkin seeds on top, you have a vegan dinner that will please everyone.

1. Prep ingredients

Halve squash lengthwise, scoop and discard seeds, and cut crosswise into ½-inch thick half-moons. Remove and discard center stems from half of the collard greens (save rest for own use), then stack leaves and cut into ½-inch ribbons. Finely chop onion. Halve pepper, discard stems and seeds, then finely chop. Halve jalapeño, remove stem and seeds, if desired; finely chop.

4. Cook rice

While stew is simmering, in a small saucepan, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and 1 teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil. Cover and cook over low until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

2. Cook aromatics

In a medium pot, combine onions, bell peppers, jalapeños, ¼ cup oil, and a pinch of salt. Cook over medium-low heat, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are translucent and completely softened, 8–10 minutes. Stir in curry powder and cook until fragrant, about 1 minute.

5. Broil squash

Preheat broiler with a rack in the top position. On a rimmed baking sheet, toss squash with 1 tablespoon oil; season with salt and pepper. Broil squash on top rack until deeply browned on 1 side and tender, rotating baking sheet halfway through cooking, 5–10 minutes total (watch carefully as broilers vary). Remove from oven and set aside.

3. Simmer stew

Add collard greens and a pinch each of salt and pepper; cook until wilted, 1–2 minutes. Add tomatoes, mushroom seasoning, and 1¾ cup water. Bring to a boil over high heat. Partially cover and simmer over medium-low until greens are tender, 20–25 minutes. Crush tomatoes with a spoon.

6. Finish & serve

Add squash to stew and simmer uncovered until completely tender, 2–3 minutes. Season stew to taste with salt and pepper. Spoon rice and stew into bowls and sprinkle with pumpkin seeds. Enjoy!
