1. Prep dates

Preheat oven to 350°F with racks in the center and upper third. Grease a 9-inch baking dish with oil.

Coarsely chop dates, removing pits if necessary; add to a medium saucepan with ½ cup water. Bring to a boil over high heat, then remove from heat and stir in ¼ teaspoon baking soda. Set aside to soften, about 10 minutes; mash with a potato masher or fork until mixture is chunky.

4. Make toffee sauce

In a second medium saucepan, combine remaining brown sugar, 1 cup evaporated milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium; simmer, whisking frequently, until sauce is slightly thickened, 4–7 minutes (you should have about 1¼ cups). Pour half of the toffee sauce over warm cake and let soak for 30 minutes.

2. Make pudding batter

Cut 4 tablespoons butter into 1-inch pieces. To saucepan with dates, mix in butter, ¼ cup + 1 teaspoon brown sugar, and 1 teaspoon vanilla until butter is melted and sugar is dissolved. Whisk in 1 large egg until smooth. Using a spatula, fold in ¾ cup flour until just combined and no dry flour remains.

5. Finish & serve

Switch oven to broil. Heat remaining toffee sauce over medium-low until warm. Broil pudding cake on upper oven rack until sauce is bubbling and cake is browned in spots, 2–3 minutes (watch carefully as broilers vary).

Serve sticky toffee pudding cake with remaining warm toffee sauce on the side. Enjoy!

3. Bake pudding

Transfer batter to prepared baking dish; bake on center oven rack until just firm to the touch and a toothpick inserted into center comes out clean, 20–25 minutes.

Remove pudding cake from oven; use a toothpick to poke holes all over cake surface.

6. Make it festive!

Whip up some heavy cream to serve on the side or dollop over top. You can also add a splash of rum or whiskey to the toffee sauce in step 4 for an extra kick, if desired.
