1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F with a rack in the upper third. Bring 3½ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan. Lightly oil a large baking dish.

Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic.

Drain and rinse beans.

2. Cook polenta

Whisk polenta and 1½ teaspoons salt into boiling water in saucepan; bring back to a boil. Cover and reduce heat to low, stirring occasionally, until grains are tender and polenta is thickened, 6–8 minutes.

3. Make salsa-bean topping

In a large bowl, combine beans, corn, all of the salsa, and 1 tablespoon oil; season to taste with salt and pepper.

4. Assemble casserole

Remove polenta from heat, then add chopped garlic, sour cream, 2 large eggs, and 3 tablespoons flour; whisk to combine. Pour into prepared baking dish and spread into an even layer. Top polenta with ½ of the cheese, then layer salsa-bean mixture on top followed by remaining cheese.

5. Bake & serve

Cover baking dish with foil and place on a rimmed baking sheet (to catch any drippings!). Bake on upper oven rack until warmed through, about 15 minutes. Uncover and continue to bake until edges start to brown, about 15 minutes more.

Let black bean polenta casserole sit 5 minutes before serving. Enjoy!

6. Make it your own!

Top your polenta casserole with extra fixings! Add some chopped avocado, sliced scallions, fresh cilantro, or whatever else you like.
