1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 350°F with a rack in the center. Lightly butter bottom and sides of a medium (1½–2 qt) baking dish. Set aside mascarpone to soften at room temperature until step 3.

Halve apricots and remove pits; cut into ½-inch pieces.

Cut 3 brioche buns into 1-inch thick slices (save rest for own use). Set aside until step 4.

4. Make brown sugar streusel

Cut 3 tablespoons butter into small pieces. Add to a medium bowl along with brown sugar, ⅓ cup flour, and a pinch of salt. Using your fingers, press butter into sugar and flour until large clumps form. Sprinkle all over soaked bread.

2. Cook apricots

In a small saucepan, combine apricots, 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar, 2 tablespoons water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Simmer over medium heat until apricots start to soften and feel jammy, 2–3 minutes.

5. Bake & serve

Bake French toast, uncovered, on center oven rack until puffed, browned, and set in the middle, 50–60 minutes. Let rest at least 10 minutes.

Sprinkle French toast bake with remaining confectioners' sugar before serving. Enjoy!

3. Mix custard & soak bread

In a large bowl, whisk together mascarpone, ¼ cup granulated sugar, 3 large eggs, 1 cup water, and ½ teaspoon salt.

In prepared baking dish, layer bread in slightly overlapping rows; pour custard over top. Using your hands or a spatula, press down on bread to fully submerge. Pour apricot mixture over top. Let rest at room temperature.

6. Take it to the next level

Add some chopped pecans before baking for nutty flavor, or zest a lemon over top before serving for more brightness!
