Creamy Tomato & Basil Risotto with Spinach

20-30min

2 Servings

Not sure if we want a bigger spoon or to just swim in a pool of this rich, warm bowl of comfort. We love how the tomato paste caramelizes with the toasted rice and how the rice only absorbs more flavor with every addition of hearty broth. Finished with spinach (because health, duh), basil pesto, and triple cream mascarpone, nonna will be licking her bowl clean at dinner tonight. We've got you covered!

1. Prep ingredients

Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic.

In a liquid measuring cup, whisk to combine 4 cups water and  $\frac{3}{4}$  teaspoon salt.

2. Toast rice

Heat  $1\frac{1}{2}$  tablespoons oil in a medium skillet over medium. Add rice, chopped garlic, and  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup tomato paste. Cook, stirring, until rice is toasted and garlic is fragrant, about 2 minutes.

3. Start risotto

To skillet with rice, add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of the salted water and  $\frac{1}{2}$  tablespoon vinegar. Cook, stirring, until nearly absorbed, 1–2 minutes.

4. Cook risotto

Continue adding remaining salted water,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup at a time, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking (keep at a strong simmer, adjusting heat if necessary), until all of the water is nearly absorbed, 25–30 minutes total. Rice will be al dente and suspended in a thick sauce.

5. Finish & serve

Stir in mascarpone, spinach, and basil pesto; cook, stirring, until spinach is wilted, 1–2 minutes. Remove from heat.

Season creamy tomato and basil risotto to taste with salt and pepper and serve. Enjoy!

6. Don't stress!

Risotto is not the fussy diva you think it is. No matter the issue, all risotto really needs is more liquid. Whether the rice still has a bite to it or your pot of goodies feels dry, just add more stock or water and keep stirring.
