1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the upper third. Fill a medium saucepan with salted water and bring to a boil. Lightly grease a medium baking dish.

Finely chop tomatoes directly in can with kitchen shears. Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic.

2. Make sauce & bake

In prepared baking dish, stir to combine tomatoes, chopped garlic, 1½ teaspoons Italian seasoning, and ¼ teaspoon each of salt and sugar. Season to taste with pepper.

Stack feta and nestle into middle of baking dish; lightly drizzle with oil. Bake on upper oven rack until tomatoes are bubbling and jammy, 25–30 minutes.

3. Cook pasta

Meanwhile, add pasta to saucepan with boiling salted water; cook, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, until al dente, 9–11 minutes. Reserve ¼ cup cooking water, then drain pasta and return to pot off heat.

4. Add pasta to sauce

Switch oven to broil.

Broil sauce until feta is browned in spots, 3–5 minutes more (watch closely as broilers vary). Carefully remove from oven. Add pasta and reserved cooking water; stir until evenly coated.

5. Slice parsley & serve

Pick parsley leaves from stems and thinly slice; discard stems.

Serve baked feta pasta with parsley sprinkled over top. Enjoy!

6. Turn up the heat

We all know and love a spicy vodka pasta, but have you tried spicy baked feta pasta? We thought not! Go ahead and sprinkle some red pepper flakes into the sauce in step 2.
