Bulgogi is a Korean-style BBQ, traditionally featuring super flavorful, marinated beef. Our version combines the same sweet and savory flavors, but is served rice bowl style! 1. Cook rice

In a small saucepan, combine rice, 1 cup water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat. Cover and cook over low until rice is tender and water is absorbed, about 15 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

4. Cook snow peas

Heat 1 teaspoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add snow peas and cook until tender and browned in spots, 2-3 minutes.

Transfer to a heatproof bowl, then toss with some of the sesame seeds. Cover to keep warm. Return skillet to stovetop.

2. Prep ingredients

Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic.

Peel and finely chop half of the ginger.

Trim half of the scallions, then thinly slice (save rest for own use). Trim ends from snow peas.

5. Brown plant-based ground

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add chopped ginger and garlic and half of the sliced scallions; cook, stirring occasionally, until fragrant, about 30 seconds.

Add Impossible patties and cook, breaking patties up into smaller pieces, until browned and heated through, about 5 minutes.

3. Make sauces

In a small bowl, stir to combine 1 teaspoon each of kimchi paste and sugar with 2 teaspoons vinegar. Whisk in 1 tablespoon oil; season kimchi vinaigrette to taste with salt and pepper.

In a second small bowl, whisk together tamari, ½ cup water, 2 tablespoons sugar, and ½ teaspoon kimchi paste until sugar dissolves.

6. Finish & serve

Spoon tamari sauce over plant-based ground. Cook, stirring, until liquid has been reduced by ⅔, about 5 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork. Drizzle plant-based ground bulgogi rice bowl with some of the kimchi vinaigrette and pass the remaining vinaigrette, sliced scallions, and sesame seeds at the table. Enjoy!
