1. Prep ingredients

Bring a large saucepan of salted water to a boil over high.

Cut broccoli into 1-inch florets, if necessary.

Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic.

2. PLANT CHICKEN VARIATION

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add plant-based chicken in a single layer and cook, without stirring, until browned and crisp on the bottom, about 3 minutes. Flip and cook until browned, 1–2 minutes more. Transfer to a plate.

3. Cook broccoli

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in same skillet. Add broccoli and cook, stirring occasionally, until just tender and browned in spots, about 5 minutes. Add chopped garlic; cook, stirring occasionally, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Remove from heat.

4. Cook noodles

While broccoli cooks, add noodles to saucepan with boiling salted water; cook until just al dente, about 2 minutes. Drain and return to saucepan.

5. Assemble & serve

Heat saucepan with noodles over medium-high. Add broccoli, plant chicken, and stir-fry sauce. Cook, stirring occasionally, until broccoli and plant chicken are coated and sauce is reduced, 1–2 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in 2 teaspoons vinegar and season to taste.

Serve plant chicken and broccoli noodles with sesame seeds over top. Enjoy!

Although reducing food waste is a top priority, sometimes in spite of best efforts, we end up with leftovers in our test kitchen and packing facilities. When that happens, we still make sure it doesn't go to waste. One way of ensuring all of our nutritious food ends up on a table is by donating to local charities like Table to Table and Grace Place.
