1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the lower third. Generously oil a rimmed baking sheet.

Let dough come to room temperature. Drain artichokes. Thinly slice half of the artichokes lengthwise (save rest for own use). Place sliced artichokes on a paper towel-lined plate; set aside for step 4.

Thinly slice 1 large garlic clove. Cut or tear mozzarella into small pieces.

2. Cook spinach

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a medium skillet over medium. Add garlic and ⅛ teaspoon crushed red pepper (or more depending on heat preference); cook until fragrant, 1-2 minutes. Add spinach, a pinch of salt, and a few grinds of pepper and cook until wilted, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a fine-mesh sieve and, using the back of a spoon, press to remove excess liquid.

3. Make ricotta mixture

In a small bowl, combine ricotta, 1 tablespoon oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds of pepper. On a lightly floured surface, stretch or roll dough to a rectangle (about 8x10-inches). If dough springs back, cover and let sit 5-10 minutes before rolling again. Transfer to prepared baking sheet.

4. Build pizza

Dollop ricotta mixture on dough and spread in an even layer, leaving a 1-inch border all around. Evenly distribute spinach over top. Scatter mozzarella pieces over spinach. Top with artichokes and drizzle with oil.

5. Bake pizza

Bake pizza on lower oven rack until browned and bubbling, 15-20 minutes. Remove and set aside to cool slightly.

6. Serve

Cut pizza and serve with any remaining crushed red pepper sprinkled on top, if desired. Enjoy!
