1. Cook rice

In a small saucepan, combine rice and 1¼ cups water. Bring to a boil over high heat. Cover and cook over low heat until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2. Prep ingredients

Toss plant chicken in a medium bowl with cornstarch, 1 tablespoon each of mirin and tamari, 2 teaspoons oil, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Set aside.

Peel and finely chop 1 teaspoon ginger. Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic. Halve peppers lengthwise; discard stems and seeds. Cut into ¾-inch pieces.

In a small bowl, combine remaining mirin and tamari.

3. Cook plant chicken

In a medium nonstick skillet, heat 2 teaspoons oil over high. Add plant chicken; spread in a single layer. Cook without stirring until lightly browned, 30–60 seconds. Cook, frequently tossing and stirring, 1–2 minutes more. Transfer to a plate.

4. Stir-fry peppers

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over high until lightly smoking. Add peppers and cook, stirring occasionally, until blistered in spots and crisp-tender, 30–60 seconds.

Move peppers to sides of skillet; add ginger, garlic, and 1 teaspoon oil to center. Cook until sizzling and fragrant, about 10 seconds. Add plant chicken and toss to combine.

5. Add sauce & serve

Add mirin-tamari mixture around edges of skillet. Cook, frequently stirring and tossing, until plant-based chicken and peppers are shiny and glazed, 30–60 seconds. Fluff rice with a fork.

Serve stir-fried plant chicken and peppers with rice. Enjoy!
