Impossible Souvlaki Meatballs with Romaine & Toasted Pita Salad

20-30min

2 Servings

We took a Greek classic and turned it on its head for this one! Instead of the traditional pork souvlaki sandwich, we made a vegetarian souvlaki salad and we're not sorry about it. Don't fret, you still get all of the necessary components—tender Impossible meatballs, the flavors of lemon, garlic and oregano, crisp romaine, and floury pita. We've got you covered!

1. Prep ingredients

Preheat broiler with a rack in the center and lower positions.

Lightly oil a rimmed baking sheet. Finely chop half of 1 pita. Finely grate 1 teaspoon garlic.

Into a small bowl, finely grate zest from half the lemon, then squeeze in 2 tablespoons juice.

2. IMPOSSIBLE VARIATION

In a medium bowl, use a fork to whisk and mash together 1 large egg and chopped pita until a paste is formed. Add Impossible ground, grated garlic, ½ teaspoon oregano, 1 tablespoon oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds of pepper. Stir gently to combine. Shape mixture into 8 meatballs and place on prepared baking sheet.

3. Broil meatballs & pita

Brush remaining 1½ pitas lightly with oil. Place baking sheet with Impossible meatballs on center oven rack. Place pita directly on lower oven rack. Broil until meatballs are browned and heated through, and pita is deeply toasted and crisp, flipping pita halfway through, about 7 minutes for meatballs and about 10 for pita (watch closely as broilers vary).

4. Prep salad

Meanwhile, cut lettuce crosswise into ½-inch pieces, discarding end. Quarter tomato lengthwise, then cut into ½-inch pieces crosswise.

To bowl with lemon juice and zest, whisk in ¼ teaspoon oregano and 3 tablespoons oil; season to taste with salt and pepper.

5. Toss salad & serve

Once pita is cool to the touch, tear into bite-sized pieces. In a large bowl, combine lettuce, tomato, and pita with ⅔ of dressing and toss to combine.

Serve salad topped with Impossible meatballs and drizzle remaining dressing over top. Enjoy!

6. Did you know?

Ordering Dinnerly is not only more convenient, but it also reduces your carbon footprint. A study from the University of Michigan found that cooking with meal kits (including packaging) generates a much lower carbon footprint than purchasing the same ingredients at the grocery store. Considering every step in the process, average greenhouse gas emissions are ⅓ lower when cooking with meal kits.
