1. Boil noodles

Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add noodles and cook, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, until al dente, 6–8 minutes. Drain noodles, then rinse under cold water and toss with ½ teaspoon oil.

2. Prep ingredients & sauce

Scrub carrot, then coarsely grate on the large holes of a box grater. Trim snow peas, then halve lengthwise. Coarsely chop all of the peanuts.

Into a small bowl, squeeze 1 tablespoon lime juice. Whisk in teriyaki and ½ tablespoon vinegar until combined; set aside. Cut any remaining lime into wedges for serving.

3. Cook eggs

In a separate small bowl, beat 2 large eggs with a pinch of salt. Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add eggs and cook, stirring gently, until scrambled, 1–2 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board; let cool slightly, then coarsely chop. Wipe out skillet.

4. Cook veggies

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add snow peas, grated carrot, ½ teaspoon granulated garlic, and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly, until fragrant and crisp-tender, 1–2 minutes. Transfer veggies to a plate.

5. Finish & serve

To same skillet over high heat, add noodles, teriyaki mixture, and 1 cup water; cook, tossing frequently, until liquid is nearly evaporated, 5–7 minutes. Add eggs and veggies; cook until warmed through, about 1 minute.

Serve veggie pad thai with chopped peanuts sprinkled over top and any lime wedges alongside for squeezing. Enjoy!

6. Did you know?

Although reducing food waste is a top priority, sometimes in spite of best efforts, we end up with leftovers in our test kitchen and packing facilities. When that happens, we still make sure it doesn't go to waste. One way of ensuring all of our nutritious food ends up on a table is by donating to local charities like Table to Table and Grace Place.
