THIS IS A CUSTOMIZED RECIPE STEP

We've tailored the instructions below to match your recipe choices. Happy cooking!

1. Prep plant-based chicken

Break plant-based chicken into bite-size pieces. Pat very dry.

4. Fry plant chicken

Heat ¼-inch oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high until shimmering. Working in batches so as to not overcrowd the pan, add plant chicken and fry until deeply golden brown, 2-3 minutes per side. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate and immediately sprinkle with schichimi togarashi.

2. Prep veggies

Grate carrot on the large holes of a box grater. Strip kale leaves from tough stems; discard stems and thinly slice leaves.

Transfer edamame to a microwave-safe bowl, cover with a damp paper towel, and microwave until beans are warmed through, 1-2 minutes.

Coarsely chop almonds.

5. Toss salad & serve

Pick mint leaves from stems and coarsely chop; discard stems. Toss kale, carrots, and mint with sesame dressing (optionally add 1 teaspoon vinegar if dressing is too sweet). Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Transfer salad to plates and top with edamame, almonds, and crispy plant-based chicken. Enjoy!

3. Coat plant chicken

In a medium bowl or plate, combine panko with sesame seeds. Working one at a time, add plant-based chicken to panko mixture and press lightly so panko sticks to plant chicken. Transfer to a 2nd plate and repeat with remaining pieces. Return plant chicken to bowl and coat with another layer of panko, press lightly to help breading adhere.

6. Spice it up!

Add some spice to this dish by drizzling on Sriracha or sprinkling it with red pepper flakes.
