1. Roast sweet potatoes

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the upper third.

Scrub sweet potato, then cut into ½-inch thick rounds. Toss on a rimmed baking sheet with 1 tablespoon oil and season with salt and pepper. Roast on upper oven rack until tender, about 20 minutes. Remove from oven and switch oven to broil.

2. Cook snow peas

Meanwhile, bring 4 cups salted water to a boil in a medium saucepan.

Trim stem ends from snow peas, then halve crosswise. Add to boiling water and cook until bright green and crisp tender, about 2 minutes. Drain, rinse with cold water, and drain well again. Set aside for step 5.

3. Cook quinoa

In same saucepan, combine quinoa, 1 cup water, and 1 teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil. Cover, reduce heat to medium-low, and cook until tender and water is absorbed, 15–20 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

4. Glaze & broil potatoes

In a medium bowl, whisk tamari, gochujang, 1 tablespoons each of vinegar and sugar, and ¼ cup oil. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Once sweet potatoes have roasted for 20 minutes, brush some of the tamari glaze on one side. Broil on upper oven rack until lightly caramelized, 3–5 minutes (watch closely as broilers vary).

5. Finish salad & serve

Trim radishes and very thinly slice. In a medium bowl, toss together radishes, snow peas, and remaining tamari glaze. Fluff quinoa with a fork.

Serve glazed sweet potatoes and snow pea and radish salad over quinoa. Enjoy!

6. Crunch, crunch!

Add a sprinkle of sesame seeds, chopped peanuts, or cashews for an extra protein kick and added crunch!
