1. Prep ingredients

Bring a medium pot of salted water to a boil. Halve tomatoes lengthwise, then cut into ½-inch pieces. Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Roughly chop olives; remove any pits, if necessary. Roughly chop parsley leaves together with tender stems.

2. Make fresh tomato sauce

Heat 1 tablespoon oil and chopped garlic in a medium skillet over medium-high until sizzling, about 1 minute. Add tomatoes, ¼ cup water, and a pinch of salt. Bring to a simmer and cook, mashing with a potato masher or fork, until sauce is smooth and reduced to about 1 cup, about 5 minutes; season to taste with salt and pepper. Cover to keep warm off heat.

3. Cook ravioli

Add ravioli to boiling water (if stuck together, gently pull apart only if possible without tearing). Reduce heat and gently simmer, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 3–4 minutes. Reserve 2 tablespoons pasta water, then drain well.

4. Sauce ravioli

Add ravioli, olives, and half each of the parsley and Parmesan to skillet with sauce, tossing gently to coat. Add 1 tablespoon reserved pasta water at a time to thin sauce, as desired; season to taste with salt and pepper.

5. Finish & serve

Serve ravioli and fresh tomato sauce topped with remaining parsley and Parmesan. Drizzle oil over the top, if desired. Enjoy!

6. Take it to the next level

Amp up the Puttanesca flavors even further! Chop up some anchovies (or tuna filets packed in olive oil) and capers, then sizzle with the garlic in step 4. Throw in a pinch of crushed red pepper flakes for some added heat.
