In a large bowl, whisk to combine flour and warm spice blend.

2. Mix batter

Whisk molasses mixture into flour mixture until smooth.

3. Bake doughnuts

Divide batter between prepared donut tin cups until halfway full.

Bake on center oven rack until firm to the touch and a toothpick inserted into center comes out clean, 18–20 minutes. Place tin on a wire rack to cool to room temperature.

4. Mix glaze

Meanwhile, microwave 2 tablespoons butter in a medium bowl until melted. Add remaining confectioners' sugar, ½ teaspoon eggnog spice, 2 tablespoons milk or water, ¼ teaspoon vanilla, and a pinch of salt; whisk until combined. Thin with 1 teaspoon milk or water at a time until glaze drops from whisk in thick ribbons.

5. Glaze & serve

Working one at a time, carefully dip rounded side of doughnut in glaze until coated. Transfer to a wire rack set over a baking sheet, glazed-side up. Sprinkle with a pinch of eggnog spice, if desired.

Let glaze set before serving gingerbread doughnuts. Enjoy!

6. No donut tin?

No problem! Make gingerbread muffins instead. Simply fill a regular cupcake or muffin tin halfway with batter, then continue as instructed.
